

Barrister at Law

Cristelle is a practising barrister-at-law and holds a BA (Hons) Law and Management and an LLM (Corporate and Securities Law). She is an FCIS, an International Tax Affiliate and a member of the Mauritius Institute of Directors. Her practice areas cover various aspects of civil, corporate, banking, employment and commercial law.

Cristelle is a member of SEMA, a trailer, former volleyball player and the assistant coach and team manager of Quatre-Bornes Volleyball Club.

CRISTELLE PARSOORAMEN

Director of High Performance Centre Mauritius at Cote D'Or National Sports Complex

Yannick Lincoln studied at Université Paul Sabatier Toulouse III where he acquired his masters degree in STAPS Unité de formation et de recherche-Science du mouvement humain-optimisation de la Perf sportive.

He is the director of High Performance Centre Mauritius at Cote D'Or National Sports Complex since May 2021

YANNICK LINCOLN

1. Human rights in Sports

Friday 3rd September
Conference Room #1
4pm to 5pm

Introduction

1.1 Sports as a human right

1.2 Human rights in Sports

2. Human rights in Sports

2.1 IOC

2.2 World Anti-Doping Code

2.3 ECHR & UN

2.4 Mauritian laws

3. Human rights issues in Mega-Events and day-to-day sports

3.1 Discrimination

3.2 Harassment

3.3 Labour conditions

3.4 Freedom of speech

3.5 Advertising and athletes' rights

4. Q&A

2. Wearable performance devices - tips and clues

Friday 3rd September
Conference Room #1
4pm to 5pm

- Where it all started
- Do we really NEED them?
- Which kind information could we seek and what is the direct impact on planification of training?
- What's the future ?

